An arbitrator shall not have the authority to order the restoration of employment in a dismissal case absent clearly arbitrary action by the Board. The Board shall have the burden of proof to establish the existence of reasonable cause. The Association shall have the burden of proof to establish any arbitrary action by the Board. The arbitrator shall adjust any back pay award by applying the general principles of mitigation of damages.

The Board acknowledges the desirability that typically the principle of progressive discipline be utilized. As used in the preceding sentence, "typically" means the Association acknowledges that, in some instances, the offense or impropriety committed justifies immediate suspension (with or without pay) and/or termination.

Non-probationary employees shall be laid off in inverse order of seniority of employees in such classification.

If the employee is unable to demonstrate ability to perform the work required during the trial period the employee shall be returned to his/her previous classification if work is available in such classification. In the event of voluntary transfer from one classification to another, the employee shall be given a like trial period, and if unable to demonstrate ability to perform the work required, the employee shall be returned to his/her previous classification if a position is available in such classification.
